

UW LSAT Prep Course Application

Introduction: UW-Madison offers an LSAT Preparatory course for students interested in applying to law school. This course helps students prepare for the reading comprehension, logical reasoning, and analytical reading sections of the Law School Admissions Test. The course includes workshops on the application process and the role of cultural competency in the study of law.

Contact Information:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone number: _____

Student ID Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Academic Year:   Sophomore                      Junior                      Senior

Have you taken the LSAT before?   Yes    No
If yes, please indicate score: _____

Cost:

Please read the following carefully.

The course tuition of $200.00 must be paid in the form of a check or money order payable to the University of Wisconsin-Madison. This payment is non-refundable. The payment and application must be delivered in person to:

B3 Bascom
Attn: Jalanda Gibonéy
500 Lincoln Drive
Madison, WI 53706

Agreements:

Please indicate your understanding and agreement with each of the following:

- ___ I will be expected to prepare 4-6 hours minimum each week outside of class.
- ___ If I miss a class, the instructor is not responsible for assisting me with the missed information and work.
- ___ If I become unable to continue the course at any time, I will notify Jalanda Gibonéy at 890-3473
- ___ I will not give, sell, or otherwise transfer my seat in the course to another student on or after the first day of class.

___ I acknowledge that part of my tuition payment will fund partial tuition remissions for the LSAT course for students who meet University guidelines for financial need.

Tuition Remission:

The College of Letters and Science will offer a limited number of partial tuition remissions to students who qualify based on their financial need. For these students, course tuition will be a total of $100.00.

Do you receive financial aid from UW-Madison? Yes No

Do you give the Center for Academic Excellence permission to check your records with the Office of Student Financial Services? Yes No

Tuition Remission Application Submission:

After submitting this application, please bring the following documents to our office:

A copy of your financial aid award letter from UW-Madison

A copy of your Student Aid Report

(On MyUW, print out your financial award information. Make sure this includes the expected amount of your family's contribution.)

You will hear from the course coordinator about whether you will receive a partial tuition remission.

For more information, please contact:

Jalanda Gibonéy
jewilliams@lssaa.wisc.edu

Please deliver application and checks, payable to University of Wisconsin-Madison to:

B3 Bascom
Attn: Jalanda Gibonéy
500 Lincoln Drive
Madison, WI 53706